Welcome
from the President
CAPT (Ret.) Jeffrey Jones, MC, USNR

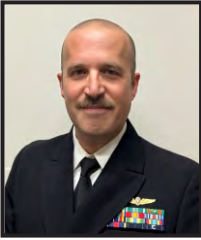

Dear SGSU Members,

Welcome to Memphis, Tennessee and the 71st Annual Kimbrough Seminar. It is a distinct honor to serve as the President of the Society of Government Service Urologists. Dr. Jonathan Berger, Dr. Alexander Doudt and Dr. Robert Grubb have put together an outstanding academic and social program, and the DeSantis Management Group continues to provide exceptional administrative leadership and support. We look forward to a fabulous meeting. As the field of Urology, military medicine, and VA medicine evolve, the Kimbrough Seminar will likewise change with the times. The meeting remains a foundation for Urologists in the service of our government, an excellent forum for education and training, and a wonderful opportunity to socialize and network with one another. The leadership and dedication of our active duty, VA and retired membership ensures that the wonderful tradition of the Kimbrough meetings will continue to support the mission and camaraderie that is unique to military and VA urology. Enjoy the meeting and your time in this beautiful city. I look forward to seeing you all.

With Best Regards,

CAPT (Ret.) Jeffrey Jones, MC, USNR

Welcome from the Program Chairs

CDR Jonathan Berger, MC, USN
LCDR Alexander Doudt, MC, USN
Robert Grubb, III, MD (USAV)

Dear SGSU Members,

A warm welcome all to the 71st Annual Society of Government Service Urologists, James C. Kimbrough Urological Seminar in Memphis, Tennessee. We have an exciting and robust academic program planned while maintaining our important SGSU traditions. We will have three full meeting days and again providing the highly valued Mock Oral Boards, Military Preparations Course, career advisement and much more for a total of 19 hours of CME (including separate CME symposiums).

Our Scientific Program provides every resident and staff the opportunity to present original research at podium and poster sessions. We are also honored to have a distinguished group of visiting faculty that will focus on state-of-the art discussions and highlight best practices and new research in urology. Special topic lectures and industry programs will round out our meeting. We will also include ample time for audience questions and discussions.

In addition to a power-packed scientific program, we are planning a number of exciting social activities including our Wednesday evening Welcome Reception, Thursday evening outing to BB Kings House of Blues (optional event) and on Friday evening, will feature the traditional GU Bowl with a dinner and entertainment to follow. Saturday late afternoon will feature our Poster Session with a Reception and The Littrell Awards Ceremony, after enjoy a free evening to explore the town.

We look forward, as always, to renewing old friendships and making new ones.

Best Regards,

CDR Jonathan Berger, MC, USN
LCDR Alexander Doudt, MC, USN
Robert Grubb, III, MD, USAV

USAV

The Urological Society for American Veterans (USAV) is established to enable its members to review and deliberate on topics and opportunities unique to federal urologic practitioners. The purpose of the organization is to initiate, discuss, and develop ideas, in an evidenced-based manner, which will improve the care of the Veteran patients with urologic disease(s) and the welfare of the federal urologic practitioner members. Learn about USAV's missions and the benefits of membership by visiting USAV website: <https://govurology.org/usav/>

HISTORY OF THE SGSU

In the early years of the annual military urology seminar, which was named after James Kimbrough in 1957, the standard practice for decades was that the SGSU leader for that particular year was the chairman of Urology at the sponsoring military institution for the upcoming Kimbrough meeting. This individual, who functioned as “the President”, was called the “Course Director”, although occasionally there were “Co-Course Directors”. This tradition continued until approximately 2010. It was around this time that the broader military leadership became concerned about the public appearance of military individuals soliciting from sponsoring corporations, to fund scientific meetings. Ultimately the decision was made to change the structure of the SGSU leadership, creating a Board of Directors (BOD), that was composed entirely of civilian, rather than military, urologists; although usually retired military. The SGSU BOD made the decision to separate the military “Course Director” away from leading the formal activities of the SGSU board. At this point, the elections included a military course director and a civilian (typically non-active duty military) President. The decision was made to place civilians within the formal SGSU leadership to minimize the exposure of the military urologists to potential financial conflicts of interest. When the Urological Society for American Veterans was brought into the SGSU as an affiliate organization in 2017, then USAV VA representatives were also allowed to be included in consideration for the Course Director(s) and President positions. Thus, the current SGSU BOD is able to execute the business and financial considerations of the organization with full transparency. In the earlier years of the SGSU, commonly the person who signed the tax return was the treasurer, however it could have been the incoming course director, or another member of the SGSU Board of Directors, but not necessarily the course director. During the years the SGSU was managed by Tibby Stevenson, and to a lesser degree by Preston Littrell, the organizational processes were less rigorous than the current ones, especially related to financial matters, like the signature on the annual IRS filings. Preston Littrell began working with the SGSU in 1961 and attended more than 40 Kimbrough Urological Seminars. In 1992 he became the Administrator for the SGSU and served in that capacity until 2009, when the Weiser Group took over the administration. The DeSantis Management Group replaced the Weiser Group in 2014 and continue to serve in that capacity as of 2025.

Of note- Meeting # 38 in 1990 was cancelled at the last minute due to the mobilization for Desert Storm. Meeting #42 was run by Dr James Auman in Charleston SC in January 1995 (as it was supposed to be the 1994 meeting, but had to be delayed due to a scheduling challenge with the hotel). A second meeting was held in 1995 as meeting #43, run by Dr David McLeod, and was held in Washington DC in November 1995. The November 2003 meeting was moved to January of 2004, so there was not a meeting in 2003. After this Kimbrough meeting time change, it was decided to always have the meeting in early winter to reduce any potential scheduling conflicts with AUA section meetings which typically are in the fall, and with the main AUA meeting always being in the spring.

JAMES CLAUDE KIMBROUGH, MD

Colonel, Medical Corps, United States Army -1887-1956

Colonel Kimbrough was the “Father of U.S. Army Urology”. A native of Madisonville, Tennessee, he graduated from Vanderbilt University School of Medicine in 1916 and entered the U.S. Army Medical Corps in July 1917. He served a total of forty-one months in Europe during World Wars I and II. His career from 1921, was spent almost exclusively as Chief Urologist in many Army hospitals and included four tours, totaling eighteen years, at Walter Reed General Hospital where he initiated the urology residency program in 1946. His military awards include a MOS prefix of “A”, Bronze Star, Legion of Merit, Purple Heart, and a Meritorious Service Citation from General Pershing. He was immediately recalled to active duty after his statutory retirement in 1948. In 1953 an Act of Congress appointed him a Permanent Consultant in urology at Walter Reed. In addition, COL Kimbrough was a Diplomat of the American Board of Urology, a member of the American Urological Association (AUA), a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and a member of the American Medical Association. He served as President of the Mid-Atlantic Section of the AUA from 1955 to 1956. From 1949 to 1950 he was President of the Washington, D.C. Urologic Society. He held honorary memberships in the Western Section of the AUA, Royal Society of Medicine of London, Academic de Chirurgie of Paris and Alpha Omega Alpha. Colonel Kimbrough was a 32d degree Mason and Shriner. His intense interest and enthusiasm in Urology made him an authority in the field of urologic oncology; he contributed fifty-eight papers to the urological literature. In 1953 this seminar was established in his honor. In 1957, after his death, the official name became the James C. Kimbrough Urological Seminar. On 29 June 1961, Kimbrough Army Hospital, Fort George G. Meade, was dedicated to his memory.

In 1957, Mrs. Pauline Kimbrough established the Kimbrough Memorial Award for the best presentation by a military resident. Starting in 1972, first place awards began to be presented to the two armed forces urology residents making the best presentations in clinical urology and basic science research. The competition was expanded to include all residents in government service affiliated urology residency programs in 2007. A plaque is given to each award winner.

PRINCE D. BEACH, MD

Colonel, Medical Corps, United States Army -1918-1992

Colonel Beach was a native of New Bedford, Massachusetts, a graduate of Colby College and Jefferson Medical College, and was commissioned in the US AMEDD in 1945. Over the next several years he served as a battalion surgeon and medical officer with varied and multiple commands of dispensaries and station hospitals, primarily in Europe. During the Korean War he received the Bronze Star while commanding officer and division surgeon of the 24th Medical Battalion. After completion of his urology residency in 1955 at Brooke Army Medical Center, he was the Assistant Chief of Urology at Fort Carson and Brooke, and Chief of Urology, 2nd General Hospital, Landstuhl, Germany. He returned to Brooke General Hospital in 1963 and was Chief of Urology from 1965 until his retirement in 1968, after 23 years of active service. Subsequently, he became an Associate Professor in the Department of Urology at Baylor College of Medicine, Chief of Urology at the VA Hospital in Houston, Texas, and Co-chairman of the VA Cooperative Urological Research Group. He was Executive Secretary of the Society of Government Service Urologists (SGSU) from its inception until his death in 1992. He was known for his great sense of humor, administrative expertise, wise counsel and sound clinical acumen.

H. GODWIN STEVENSON

SGSU Administrator - 1920-1992

H. Godwin Stevenson, a native of Philadelphia, graduated from Cornell University with a B.S. in zoology. He was a naval aviator and flight instructor during World War II. In 1946 he joined Eaton Laboratories as their first salesman and was in charge of government sales from 1952 until his retirement in 1982. He was a naturalist throughout his life, an expert in falconry, an avid birdwatcher, and published authority on moths. Known affectionately as "Tibbie," he was a trusted friend, confidant, and supporter of all Armed Forces and VA urologists. His numerous contributions to government service urology remain his legacy, and include:

administrator of the SGSU from its inception in 1972 until his death in 1992, organization and publication of the "Proceedings of the Kimbrough Seminar," solicitation of multiple corporate sponsors for the annual James C. Kimbrough Urological Seminar, resident grants to professional meetings, SGSU Membership Directory, and hotel conference agreements for the yearly Kimbrough meeting.

H.G. STEVENSON AWARD PREVIOUS WINNERS

In 1992 the Society established this award, which is presented annually for outstanding support and dedicated service to the Society. The recipient of this award can be a Corporate Member, physician, or other individual as determined by the Board of Directors.

CHRISTINE MANTHOS

Major, Medical Corps, United States Army - 1961-1999

Major Manthos, a native of Leesburg, Virginia, commissioned in the USAR in 1985, was a graduate with distinction of University of Virginia and the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences from which she received the Army Surgeon General Award. She did her surgical internship at Fitzsimons AMC followed by a one year assignment in Korea as Troop Medical Clinic Commander. She returned to Fitzsimons to complete her Urology residency in 1996 as the last graduating urology resident prior to the closure of Fitzsimons. Among her accomplishments throughout her life were fluency in Russian, participation in an early Hanta virus study, experience as a country music disc jockey, selection by her peers in 1996 as Outstanding Teaching Resident and below zone promotion to Major. An outstanding physician, she was known for her genuine compassion, excellent teaching abilities and superb surgical skills. Chris was lovingly devoted to her children, family and many friends. Her ever-present infectious smile touched all who knew her. The annual luncheon will be held in memory of Christina Manthos, a member of the society who died of breast cancer. We hope her memory and love for residents will live on during the annual Manthos Resident and Young Urologist Luncheon.

CLARE SCANLON

1941-2005

Clare Scanlon was just as much a member of the Army as was her husband, retired judge advocate Wally. A native of Long Island, New York, Clare graduated from Marymount College in Arlington, Virginia. While raising a family and moving from post to post, Clare worked tirelessly to enrich the lives of those around her. She received the Military Wife of the Year award at Fort Dix, NJ in 1971, and in 1974 was a recipient of the Molly Pitcher award for distinguished service as an officer's wife in the community at Ft. Sill, OK. While at West Point, Clare instructed cadets on finer points of decorum and protocol, launching many young men and women into successful Army careers.

After Wally's career took him to Fort Sam Houston, she served as the medical editor for Brooke Army Medical Center, shepherded many manuscripts into prestigious journals and textbooks of international renown, and began a decade of service to the SGSU. Even into the last year of her life, Clare dedicated countless hours to planning the Kimbrough Urological Seminar, editing and assembling the program book.

CLARE SCANLON AWARD - PREVIOUS WINNERS

CLARE SCANLON AWARD

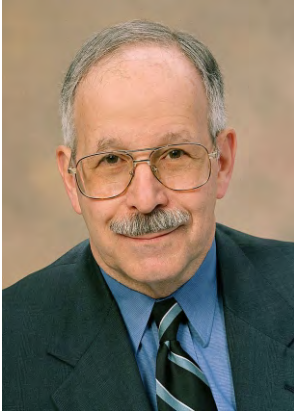

In 2006, to express our deep gratitude for her devoted service, the Society established the Clare Scanlon Award, to be "presented annually for outstanding administrative support and service to the Society, specifically in regards to the annual Kimbrough Seminar, as determined by the Course Director".

COL (RET.) MARTIN L. DRESNER, MD

1940-2020

Marty, Dr. Jazz, was a lifelong active member of our society and had a deep passion for resident education. He served on the SGSU Board of Directors for many years, was bestowed as an Honorary Member in 2016 and was a fixture as judge for the Annual Kimbrough Seminar Resident Competition. Dr. Dresner served as the President of the Western Section AUA and on the American College of Surgeons Board of Governors, received the AUA Presidential Citation, and was a tireless advocate for military medicine, always promoting the talent and caliber of military urologists. Marty was an outstanding clinician and surgeon; he enjoyed teaching and mentoring many of our members while on active duty and after his transition to civilian practice. Marty loved his family (and considered us part of his family), music, tennis and enforcing the rules of proper grammar. Dr. Dresner retired from the Army as Colonel, was a decorated Vietnam War Veteran having served with the First Air Cavalry Division, received the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, and many other distinguished awards. Marty was proud to have introduced the DeSantis family management to our Society. His presence and impact will forever be felt and appreciated at all future Kimbrough Seminars.

MARTIN DRESNER GRAND PRIZE POSTER AWARD PREVIOUS WINNERS

In 2024, the SGSU established this award to be given in memory of Dr. Dresner for his love to support resident education and research, and for his dedicated service to the SGSU.
